EXAS SPRING PALACE.

Idea Suggested to Gen. Cameron by the Success of Sioux City's Corn Palace.

Every Part of the State Should be Represented Recause the Whole State Will Share the Benefit.

The small boy playeth marbles at the same season every year as did his fathers before him, and his knowledge of the time and season is like the wind in one respect-no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth.

The fashion crazes of his elders are almost equally inexplicable, though they possess the merit of change—if change be a merit. Yesterday it was croquet, today, lawn tennis; yesterday, skating rink, to-day the specialty, "palace." This latest novelty craze seems to have taken its rise in the success of the 'Tee Palace' at Montreal, an erection which attracted very wide attention and proved a most successful novelty. It was followed by others of a similar kind-all more on less successful; but the most original and perhaps the most successful of all is the Corn Palace at Sioux City, lowa. It was the marvellous success of this-both artistically and financiallythat suggested to Gen. Cameron the idea of the Texas Spring Palace. We who live in Texas and are familiar with its wonderful fertility and genial climate can hardly appreciate thesehardly can conceive the full effect which artistic exhibition of our resources will have upon the minds of men accustomed to a more selfish soil, a more rigorous elimate: otherwise, we should ere now have given more attention to forcing a conviction of our greatness on those outside of Gen. Cameron's suggestion that we

erect a "Palace" in and on which could be exhibited all the products of our state is perhaps the very best medium that could have been devised. It has the great merit of being "in line" with the present popular "craze." It can be erected at comparatively little cost and it will be decorated by the people themselves. Do you ask in what it differs from a state fair? just in one letter. It will be a state "fairy." The object sought to be achieved is to give the palace the appearance of being built of the prowith the character of the products to be efforts. used. The corn palace at Sioux City is built in square rectangular form, which lends itself easily to characteristic decoration by means of corn ears, but would wheat. A suggestion is given here which . 84 70 11 · · · 122 50 is merely a suggestion of a sinchole style. 94 50 12 · · · 131 40 Everybody is free to make suggestions. . 122 50 | is merely a suggestion of a suitable style. cise their ingenuity to invent or apply ornangent-all ornament to be made of Texas product and all subject to one gen- of the state will be represented in the exeral design. One can readily see with such a variety of products as this state can show at the first of June, othere is practically no limit to ingenuity in devising ornament for this building.

One idea occurs to me which I shall mention as it may be the means of suggesting designs to others. Wichita Falls and Main, has offered wheat to decorate the dome. - It would be quite possible, I think, to so lize this wheat as to give the dome the emblance of a vast wheat field, part at being cut, part in shock and part" Deing hauled off and stacked. The effect as seen from a little distance would be of very realistic, if at all well done, and what could be more appropriate?

Inside space will be given to different tricts, as may be determined, in which the people of each section will be free to vie with each other for pre-eminence in variety, and excellence of product and display it in a novel, attractive, even fantastic fashion. The numerous offers of assistance testify the widespread interest in this enterprise, but many are yet to be heard from. The wool men must come in, so must the lumber men, and we look for a liberal exhibition of should be represented. The railroads C-Top of column next to read- will bring people from the North in

It is to establish this, the best conceivthat the people of Fort Worth are now asked to subscribe. It is not a donation you are asked for, but a subscription to the stock of a company which will, if properly managed, generously managed, return you handsome profits. Of the indirect profit in the benefit to your real estate or your business you can form some little idea when it is mentioned that in Sioux Cily the effect was to double and more than double the value of property

Let there be but the usual unanimity on this subject and the Palace is won. WILLIAM F. SOMMERVILLE. Chairman executive committee.

Besides the sale of the lumber in the building will go a good ways toward making a balance. Sioux City is grateful to the people who have so generously patronized the palace. Next year will be given a like carnival.

TEXAS SPRING PALACE.

It Will be a Big Thing for the State-Texas

Gainesville Hesperian: Fort Worth is getting along first-rate with her Spring Palace, nearly $10,000 "having already been subscribed in stock. St. Paul has had her ice palace, New Orleans her sugar cane palace, Sioux City her corn palace, and why not Fort Worth her Spring Palace in which the products and resources of Texas could be displayed? Go ahead with your enterprise and see if Cooke county does not come up with a big exhibit.

AND THEY WILL HELP TEXAS. Paris News: Fort Worth is going to build a Spring Palace in which to exhibit the products and resources of that city and section'. It is only to keep open during the spring months. The Fort leads all other places when it comes to enterprises. Its property owners never miss an opportunity to bring new enterprise there. They have made Fort Worth and by doing so have made money for them-

GREAT THING FOR TEXAS. Holland Guard: Fort Worth is to have Texas Spring Palace for the display and advertisement of the goods and products of the state." It will also advertise Fort Worth, which we suppose was the original purpose of it, but, nevertheless, it will be another great thing for Texas.

PROMISES SUCCESS. East Texas Pinery: Fort Worth has evolved what it calls a "Spring Palace," to take place in that city next June. It is intended to be an exhibition of Texas products of all kinds, and promises to be a great success.

A COMMENDABLE ENTERPRISE. Southern Mercury: Fort Worth is endeavoring to inangurate a "Spring Paface" in contradistinction to the winter palaces in the North, and is to be composed of Texas products entirely. Another Free Entertainment.

Regardless the very inclement weather a select crowd gathered in the hall of the free reading room, last Thursday night. All inspected the long-looked-for reading room and all were well pleased. A general social conversation prevailed. When all were seated in the hall we were royally entertained by friends of this cause. Singing, reading and recitations were the enjoyment of the evening, not omitting the witty remarks and conciseness so well pleased that it was unanimously agreed to have another such entertainment next Tuesday night, January 29. at the same place. All efforts will be made to make it still more successful. A cordual invitation is extended to all to come and have a good time. STARVING IN KANSAS.

An Appeal for Aid from Seward County-No Work and No Money-A Failure of Crops Causes the Strain.

Sr. Louis, Mo., Jan. 26 .- A special from Kansas City says:

Information has been received here that many of the people in Seward county, Kan., are on the verge of starvation. Appeals have been sent to various places, and to-day a letter was received by the postmaster from Mrs. J. Richardson, who lives eleven miles from West Plains. In it she says: "Many of us have not sufficient food, and only a few have enough clothes to hide our nakedness. There is portunity for the people earn anything by labor, as there is nothing to do and no money for recompense if such were the case. Children are without proper nourishment, and the mild winter alone has been their salvation." The writer makes a plaintive appeal to the people of Kansas City.

Seward county is in the part of Kansas that has suffered from crop failures, and many of those who went there with a little money lost their all, and are now forced to appeal to charity for help.
